Briggs Gets England Call Up

Danny Briggs has been called up to the England 20Twenty squad for the forthcoming two-match NatWest international Twenty20 series against West Indies.

Danny who once again has impressed in the shorter version of the game this year for Hampshire could gain his first full England cap at the Kia Oval on the 23rd September

England National Selector, Geoff Miller, said

"We have selected ten of the players who were involved in last month's Twenty20 victory over India while the injuries to Stuart Broad and Eoin Morgan and the continued period of rest for Kevin Pietersen means we bring four players into the squad; James Anderson, Jonathan Bairstow, Scott Borthwick and Danny Briggs.

"Graeme Swann is a highly respected member of the England side and his experience and leadership qualities will be invaluable when he leads a young England team next week- a role he is very much looking forward to."

An Evening With Martin Bodenham

Isle of Wight Association of Cricket Officials Presents An Evening with Martin Bodenham on Monday 3rd October 2011
Newport Football Club 7:30pm start.

Martin Bodenham is a former FIFA and Premier League Football Referee who's career spanned many years and culminated in appointments such as the 1997 League Cup Final between Leicester City and Middlesbrough. Retirement came a year later in 1998 and in 2001 he became the first ever head of refereeing for the county of Sussex. He was also a Premier League match observer, referees assessor and a UEFA delegate.

After retiring from the whistle Martin concentrated on becoming a senior cricket umpire and after eight years of hard dedicated work he was added to the ECB reserve list in 2006 standing at the wicket for England A versus Sri Lanka at Worcester in May of that year. Martin is currently Umpiring on the Full ECB Umpires list.

Martin has created history in becoming the only person in this country to officiate at the top level in both Football and Cricket.

The Isle of Wight Association of Match Officials are pleased to welcome Martin to St Georges, Newport Football Club for an evening of Chat, Story's and insight into the world of top officiating in this country.

Entrance is free by pre-booked tickets only.

Spaces are limited so please book your tickets by emailing Barrie Wade at barrie.wade444@gmail.com providing a name, address and quantity of tickets required (max 4 per person)
